

ICEB Board members are planning to re-open weekend Islamic school for kids ages 7 to 14 years old in fall of 2024. Hafiz Ebrahiem Attarwala will be leading the following courses initially once a week every Sunday morning from 11:30 am to 1:30 pm with the help of volunteers. The program would be extended to include Saturdays and weekdays hopefully by next year. The commencement of school will be determined on the number of paid registration forms received.

Hafiz Ebrahiem Attarwala is originally from Gujrat, India. He has completed his hafiz-ul-Quran with tajweed plus 4 years of Alim course at Darul Uloom Ashrafiyya in Gujrat, India before moving to US (Bay Area) with his family. Initially started teaching Quran classes at home and lead Taraweeh prayers at Lowry Masjid in Fremont for two years. He then moved to Mill Valley with his Father and started teaching Islamic courses at Ebrahim Khalilullah Islamic Center from 2010 to 2012 on both Saturdays and Sundays. He currently resides in Fairfield California since 2013 with his wife and two kids. Performs daily fajr and maghrib prayers every day, Jummah prayers, and Eid salat at Vacaville Islamic Center until 2019. He is also working full time as a delivery driver for Fedex and devotes his evening and weekends in teaching Islamic classes at Masjid Noor in Concord (on Sundays).

Subjects to be covered during weekend school.

- Hadith teaching with historical background
- Aqaaid – fundamentals of belief
- Fiqh – Islamic law
- Akhlaq/Adaab – Manors and Etiquettes
- Reciting and memorization of duas and surahs
- Performing salah (Namaaz)

Other courses maybe introduced later with for all age groups

Please help us make this effort to teach our kids the essentials of Islam by volunteering as it can only run when we all participate in it. Sign up for volunteer list and your interest/talent.

Volunteer Name – _____

Phone number – _____

Email address – _____